

“No tree to they are all at V

In mid 2007 Paulus van den Berk will hand the position of general manager over to his nephew Pieter van den Berk. Paulus is one of the two brothers who have helped Van den Berk Nurseries develop into the current, international company.

Sharing knowledge

Jan van den Berk left in 2004. The brother of Paulus retired after 51 years. Paulus stayed at the helm and ran the company with passion for several more years, but is now taking a back seat. Paulus van den Berk: “I am handing over the management, but I am not stopping. I will remain involved with the

“I am handing over the management, but I am not stopping. I will remain involved with the company. It is time to give the new generation space.” (Paulus van den Berk)

